Stocking Sale

Eclipsing any previous effort ever made in this city. The mauka win-dow has been converted into a display of ladies stockings such as is seldom seen here or elsewhere. These stockings were all bought for us in Europe before the duty went into effect. They could not be purchased in the United States today in hundred dozen lots for anything like the price for which we are selling them In order to protect our customers and prevent these stockings talling into the hands of small retail dealers we shall refuse to sell over one dozen pairs to any one purchaser. Here are a few numbers:
